

The League of Night and Fog: A Novel (Mortalis)

By David Morrell

Two brilliant operatives known as Saul and Drew are drawn together to solve a baffling mystery: Why have ten elderly men from around the world been kidnapped? As the agents investigate they are pulled into a violent cycle of revenge that stretches back to World War II—and is now forcing sons to pay for their father's darkest sins.

David Morrell's international thrillers have no equal. From the Vatican to the Swiss Alps, from Australia to the heartland of America, The League of Night and Fog brings together two generations bound by one chilling legacy.

Review

"Morrell, an absolute master of the thriller, plays by his own rules and leaves you dazzled."—Dean Koontz

"David Morrell is, to me, the finest thriller writer living today, bar none."—Steve Berry

"Splendid, state-of-the-art . . . action/adventure . . . Morrell's forte is action, and there is plenty of that here."—Washington Post Book World

"A wildly Ludlumesque thriller . . . an exciting and entertaining adventure."—Publishers Weekly

From the Inside Flap

The Bookcassette® format is a special recording technique developed as a means of condensing the full, unabridged audio text of a book to record it on fewer tapes. In order to listen to these tapes, you will need a cassette player with balance control to adjust left/right speaker output. Special adaptors to allow these tapes to be played on any cassette player are available through the publisher or some US retail electronics stores.

About the Author

David Morrell is the award-winning author of First Blood—the novel in which Rambo was created—as well as twenty-seven other books. This book was the basis for the 1989 mini-series starring Robert Mitchum. With eighteen million copies in print, his work has been translated into twenty-six languages. He was a professor in the English department at the University of Iowa and currently serves as the copresident of the International Thriller Writers organization. He lives in Santa Fe, New Mexico, with his wife.
